

The Amah Mutsun Speaker Series

Native American Language Revitalization

ricca haysa ricasum (their speaking their language)

Friday, April 27, 2012, from 9:30am-5:00pm

Bay Tree Conference Rooms

University of California, Santa Cruz

Keynote Presenter:

Jessie Little Doe Baird

Since 1993 Jessie Little Doe Baird, a Mashpee Wampanoag, received an M.Sc. (2000) from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She has served as the co-founder and director of the Wôpanâak Language Reclamation Project in Mashpee, Massachusetts, since 1993.

Also Featuring:

Valentin Lopez, Amah Mutsun Language Restoration
(Chairman, Amah Mutsun Tribal Band)

James Sarmento
(Executive Director Native American Language Center)

Lajos Szoboszlai
(Graduate Student, U.C. Davis Linguistics Department)

Martha J. Macri, Native American Language Revitalization
(Professor, Native American Studies, Director, Native American Language Center, UC Davis)

Lori Lawia, Pomo Language Learning
(UC Davis graduate student, Native American Studies)

Dr. Sheri Tatsch, Lecturer,
(U.C. Davis, Native American Studies)

Speakers • Film • Workshops • Breakout Sessions

For More Information Visit us at:

www2.ucsc.edu/airc

Directions to UCSC and the Bay Tree Conference Room please visit
http://maps.ucsc.edu/content/7275/map\_detail

For disability related needs or accommodations, call the AIRC at 831/459-5389